The Retirement Lifestyle You Deserve

June 2023

A Note from the Wellness

Department

June is said to be the month of weddings, so we are having a Mock Wedding week here at Rotary Villas. Our Wellness mannequins are getting married! (WHAT has been happening lately in my office!!!) Manne and Quin are tying the knot the week of June 12-17. There will be a wedding cake to make, decorate, and eat! There will be an old-fashioned Bridal Shower for Quin, complete with games and fun! On Thursday we will have a wedding dress fashion show to see some older vintage dresses. The "I DO! BBQ" reception will be on Friday at lunchtime. Wedding cake will be served in addition to ice cream on Friday.

We will celebrate the marriage with a wedding dance and music by Prairie Fire on Friday. And don't miss brushing up on wedding customs and traditions at the Saturday morning program in the Common Room.

Watch your calendar and get ready to celebrate with the new couple, Manne, and Quin, as they start their new life together!

Protect Yourself from Scams

BE AWARE! Fraudsters are able to call "from" any phone number. There are many different scams out there. HANG UP if the call seems suspicious. Keep in mind, Brandon Police Service does not accept any money for persons requiring bail nor will they ever ask you to deposit money into an ATM for someone requiring bail. There are many different scams out there. For more information visit the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre online.

Welcome HOME!

There has been a lot of activity in the Leasing Department with many new folks joining the Rotary Villas community. We welcome John and Ardeth Brown on the first floor. On the second floor, we welcome Dot Burgess mid June, and Carmen Grasby at the end of June. On the third floor we welcome Lois Amey and Richard and Gail Martinook first part of June. All the new residents currently reside in Brandon and are looking forward to joining Rotary Villas.
